

The Key Publishing House Inc.

The Key Publishing House Inc.

Novels

Desirable Glance (Nazrat Eishthae)

$12.99

Â Banned in 2008 by the Sudanese authorities, it is a great novel, a testimony from inside made by a committed intellectual, written in a style which mixes realism and metaphor, poetry and hardship. [\[Product Details...\]](#)

Jango & Afterward (Jango wa ma Baed)

$12.99

Â Jango & Afterward eloquently displays the events of a night of narration and remembrance and some of the previous and later details. [\[Product Details...\]](#)

Predisposed

$19.99

Â Predisposed is the story of a life not too uncommon but often denied. It is a story of struggle, challenge, oppression and ultimately healing. [\[Product Details...\]](#)

The Calling

$19.99

Similar to The Kite Runner, The Calling is an intentional fiction to give voice to the voiceless of Southern Sudan. A novel that portrays Southern Sudanâ€™s plight of war, oil, and power-conflict. [\[Product Details...\]](#)

The Other Shore (Al-Difa Al-Okhra)

$14.99

Â The Other Shore portrays the tale of a lost generation of youth whom at the peak of their intellectual prosperity and growth are faced with the harsh realities of socio-economic desperation. [\[Product Details...\]](#)

The Red Wind (Al-Reigh Al-Hamrae)

$11.99

The Red Wind, discusses the human interactions and social relationships as well as the worlds of fantasies that represent the lives of the Eritrean people in the region. [\[Product Details...\]](#)

The Road to the Impossible Cities (Altarig ila Almudn Almsthila)

$14.99

Â The Road to the Impossible Cities represents the struggle against vanity, the rigorous traditions, and the corrupted degenerating post-independent circumstances in Sudan, in Africa. [\[Product Details...\]](#)